

More than 1,300m² of flexible floor space with elegant finishes and state of the art technology

The tradition of grand scale entertaining at Royal Randwick reaches a new standard with this breathtaking new Ballroom. Guests can spill out on to the undercover terraces that surround the Ballroom on two sides with district and city views that the elevated vantage affords. With a floor space of more than 1,300m² and multiple entry points via the escalators and elevators, 'grand reveals' and other dramatic devices can be easily activated to impress your guests. Flexibility is paramount with the Ballroom which can easily be divided into five rooms by four operable walls.
